

I am against this issue. As a musician, businessman, and US citizen I believe this is against the interest of the general public.